

Celebrating 10 Years of Little Free Libraries

2019 is the tenth anniversary of the first Little Free Library! To celebrate a decade of Little Free Libraries and the volunteer stewards who bring them to life, we're offering exciting awards, events, and giveaways throughout the year.

In 2009 Todd Bol (1956-2018) created the first Little Free Library book exchange and placed it in his Hudson, Wisconsin, front yard in tribute to his mother—a teacher.

Ten years later, his idea has snowballed into the world's largest book-sharing movement. There are now more than 80,000 Little Free Libraries in all 50 states and 90+ countries, from Argentina to Zambia.

The Little Free Library nonprofit organization, established in 2012, is at the heart of this phenomenon. Our growing network shares our mission to inspire a love of reading, build community, and spark creativity.

We're looking forward to 2019 with excitement—and you're invited to join us!

As we celebrate ten years of Little Free Libraries, look for:

- The Todd H. Bol Awards for Outstanding Achievement honoring volunteer stewards making an exceptionally positive impact on their communities.
- Commemorative Little Free Libraries to be distributed to communities in need through our Impact Library Program.
- Special monthly giveaways for Little Free Library volunteer stewards and patrons.
- Exciting technology additions to improve the Little Free Library experience for our community.
- New ways for our friends and fans to get involved with the global book-sharing movement.

LittleFreeLibrary.org/contact-us

715-690-2488 | Little Free Library, 573Co. Rd. A, Suite 106, Hudson, WI 54016

