Heather Butts

Professor Heather Butts is the co-founder of H.E.A.L.T.H for Youths, Inc. a nonprofit organization that focuses on college readiness and preparation. Her organization partners with 53 programs to help more than 4,000 students achieve their dream of going to college. During the pandemic, her organization has worked on dozens of projects to help the community including: turning Little Free Libraries into food pantries and organizing several community gardening programs to get fresh produce to those in need.

Kate DiCamillo

The theme of hope and belief amid impossible circumstances is a common thread in much of Kate DiCamillo's writing. Her novel Flora & Ulysses, a laugh-out-loud story that follows a young comic book fan and her super-powered squirrel, won the 2014 Newbery Medal and was an instant New York Times bestseller. On February 19, Flora & Ulysses debuts in a much-anticipated film adaptation on Disney+. Kate says about stories, "When we read together, we connect. Together, we see the world. Together, we see one another."
