Chapter 7 Guests

Angela Dominguez

Angela Dominguez was born in Mexico City and grew up in the great state of Texas. She now resides on the east coast with her boyfriend and their petite dog, Petunia. She is the author and illustrator of several books for children and a two-time recipient of the Pura Belpré Illustration Honor. Her debut middle grade novel, Stella Díaz Has Something To Say, was a New York Public Library and a Chicago Public Library pick for Best Books for Kids in 2018, winner of SCBWI Sid Fleischman Award, an ALA Notable, and A Global Read Aloud Choice. When Angela is not in her studio or visiting schools, she teaches illustration at the Academy of Art University.

Angela recommends: The Adventures of TEAM POM: SQUID HAPPENS by Isabel Roxas

McKenzie Cox

McKenzie Cox is a rising senior from Concord, NC who has always had a strong passion for reading. In 2019, she installed her first Little Free Library using an old newspaper bin that she refurbished, and has since installed a total of 10 throughout her state. She is the founder of ROAD - Reading Opens All Doors 501(c)(3), which collects and redistributes books to areas of need.

McKenzie recommends: Outliers by Malcolm Gladwell
