Chapter 8 Guests

Grace Lin

Before Grace Lin was an award-winning and NY Times bestselling author/illustrator of picture books, early readers, and middle-grade novels, she was the only Asian girl (except for her sisters) going to her elementary school in Upstate NY. That experience, good and bad, has influenced her books. In 2016, Grace's art was displayed at the White House and Grace, herself, was recognized by President Obama's office as a Champion of Change for Asian American and Pacific Islander Art and Storytelling.

Grace recommends: We Should All Be Feminists by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie

Claire Fuller

Claire Fuller was born in Oxfordshire, England. She has written four novels: Our Endless Numbered Days, which won the Desmond Elliott Prize; Swimming Lessons, Bitter Orange, and her most recent, Unsettled Ground, which is a finalist for the Women's Prize for Fiction. She has an MA in Creative and Critical Writing from the University of Winchester and lives in England with her husband.

Claire recommends: What Luck, This Life by Kathryn Schwillie and We Have Always Lived in the Castle by Shirley Jackson

Karina Yan Glaser

Karina Yan Glaser is the New York Times bestselling author of the Vanderbeeker series. She is a contributing editor for Book Riot and lives in Harlem with her husband, two daughters, and an assortment of rescue animals. One of her proudest achievements is raising two kids who can't go anywhere without a book.

Karina recommends: A Sitting in St. James by Rita Williams-Garcia and Legacy and One Last Word by Nikki Grimes
