

Little Free Library®
Unbound

Chapter 21: Building Your Own Little Free Library

Show Notes

Chapter 21 Guests

Andrea Gillespie

Andrea Gillespie (she/her) is a retired Superintendent of Education. She and her husband Tom repurposed their daughter's bus shelter to become a Little Free Library during Covid when the local public library closed and the bookstore in their town shut its doors. All of their book friends drive to their location and they get visitors and often donations every day.

Andrea recommends: Looking for Jane by Heather Marshall

Bill Reed

Bill Reed (he/him) is a retired Math teacher who was in the classroom for over 33 years in grades 7 – Community College. He retired from the classroom and became the Secondary Math and S.T.E.M. Specialist for the Indiana Department of Education. He believes that everyone should be a “Lifelong Learner” and Little Free Libraries are a great gift that helps facilitate that mantra.

Bill is reading: Teaching Math at a Distance by Theresa Wills

John Threlfall

An arts & popular culture specialist based in Victoria BC, John Threlfall (he/him) has had a typically eclectic career. A community builder, choral singer and active volunteer who frequently assists with his wife's many public art projects, John takes enormous pleasure in daily curating his own Little Free Library and creating unique LFLs for others.

John recommends: The Library Book by Susan Orlean

Chapter 21 Resources

Guest Links + Additional Resources

Bill Reed: Metal Roof Instructions

John Threlfall: Instagram

Little Free Library Links

Build Plans

Little Free Library Kits

Library Legs

Mobile app and world map

Facebook: Steward group

Previously on Unbound